Notes

- 1 ISCA retains the right to switch between face-to-face and virtual learning for the ISCA FFA Qualification workshops, depending on the Government's future directives on the evolving situation of COVID-19.
- 2 ISCA reserves the right to amend the dates without prior notice.
- 3 Virtual workshop will be delivered via Zoom meeting platform.
- 4 Starting from second half of the year 2022 onwards, workshop delivery mode for selected module(s) will be changed to blended learning that consists of at least 1-day virtual workshop and online learning courseware with checkpoint quizzes via ISCA Learning Management System. ISCA and the training provider will be working closely together to ensure that the mode of delivery will be appropriate for ISCA FFA Qualification's intended learning outcomes. More details on blended learning will be announced next year.
- 5 Workshop attendance is compulsory and full attendance is required before the candidates are allowed to sit for the examinations.
- 6 We will notify candidates in advance should there be any changes to our workshop and examination date, timing, and delivery mode.
- 7 Please visit the website for updates.
